

UNITED STATES MINT

BULK PURCHASE AGREEMENT FORM

QUALIFYING CRITERIA

To become a United States Mint bulk purchaser, an applicant must attest to the fact that it is one of the following:

1. a licensed full-time “coin dealer” (any state-licensed firm or company engaged in the commercial sale of coins via storefront, coin shows or online)
2. a licensed business involved in the precious metals or numismatic coin industry
3. a licensed retailer, bank, credit union or other financial institution willing to expand its business into the numismatic coin industry

All applicants must complete and sign a “Bulk Purchase Agreement Form” and a “Bulk Purchase Registration Form.” Additionally, all applicants must submit a copy of their current business license or state resale certificate.

The United States Mint will review applications and notify applicants of acceptance or rejection within 30 days of receipt of their application.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Each order submitted under these terms will qualify for a 5 percent discount only after the applicant is accepted into the Bulk Purchase Program. Pre-existing orders do not qualify.
2. Any order that totals less than $5,000 will not qualify for the discount. The discount will be applied only to orders meeting the $5,000 minimum purchase requirement for available products. An order may combine any assortment of available products listed on the current Qualifying Numismatic Bulk Purchase Qualifying Products list to meet the $5,000 minimum purchase requirement.
3. Orders will be assessed a percentage of the retail value of their order to cover shipping and handling costs. Domestic orders will be assessed 1 percent and international orders 2 percent.
4. Order placed through this program will be shipped to the address of record as entered in the United States Mint order management system. All orders are shipped from the United States Mint’s fulfillment center. Bulk purchasers will not be permitted to pick up orders. Orders are processed on a first-in first-out basis.
5. Bulk purchasers are required to use the same assigned customer account number for all orders.
6. Orders for non-commemorative coin products must be placed either online or over the telephone by an Agent at our Customer Contact Center. Orders not sent accordingly will not qualify for the discounts. Special commemorative coin program orders, which require a minimum purchase of 100 clad or 100 silver coins or a minimum purchase of 25 gold coins, that are available at an introductory price, are to be placed via telephone only.

7. A registered bulk purchaser may display a point-of-purchase sign provided by the United States Mint. Such signage shall not be reproduced, altered or modified in any way.

8. This program does not limit the United States Mint's authority to offer additional discounts or to exclude certain products from the Bulk Purchase Program in the future.

9. A bulk purchaser must agree that products purchased through this program may not be advertised for retail sale at prices less than the United States Mint's current price for the same product, as long as those products are still available for sale from the United States Mint and/or under wait-list status.

10. A bulk purchaser may, when marketing, promoting or selling United States Mint coins purchased under the Bulk Purchase Program, refer to itself as a "Bulk Purchaser of United States Mint non-bullion coins," with the following stipulations:

- It shall not imply or indicate that it is an "official" or "designated" distributor for the Department of the Treasury or the United States Mint or has any other "official" status, or that it has a connection with the Department of the Treasury or the United States Mint beyond the relationship established by this agreement.
- It shall not use the official seal of the Department of the Treasury or United States Mint in any manner or use any other Department of the Treasury or United States Mint intellectual property or trade dress.
- It shall ensure that all advertising, packaging and promotional materials intended for use in marketing United States Mint products is accurate and in keeping with the dignity and character of the coins as issuances of the U.S. government. The United States Mint reserves the right to require that bulk purchasers discontinue usage of any material that it determines does not meet this term or is objectionable (e.g., print Web advertisements that promote the bulk purchaser as an "official United States Mint or licensed bulk purchaser/dealer" of United States Mint coins.
